MANY PRIZES TO BE AWARDED BY LOCAL EAGLES

PREPARATIONS ARE UNDER WAY FOR ENTERTAINMENT OF EAGLES' CONVENTION.

Tonopah Eagles are making preparations for the entertainment of the Nevada Aeries which are scheduled to gather in this city on May 25 for the state convention. A lengthy program for the amusement of the visitors is being prepared, and several ball games are among the list. Several of the aeries will enter teams in the baseball contest and the home nine is being whipped into shape to defend the honor of the camp against all comers.

An attractive list of prizes will be awarded during the session. Among this number is an offering to go to the best decorated business house, and another for the best decorated window. The visitors will have a chance to compete in the parade when suitable awards will be made to the biggest, smallest, fattest and leanest Eagles. There will be quite a competition for these honors.

The drill team of the local aerie is practicing nightly for the competition between the various state teams. This event will be witnessed only by members of the order and has created considerable interest throughout the state. The convention will be in session for three days.
